Insurance Bill Compromise Fails in House

By JOHN R. STARR
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus' move to force out-of-state insurance companies to invest in Arkansas was up to its neck in legislative hot water today.

The House refused Tuesday to pass a compromise investment bill and a poll of key members who voted against it indicated a scant chance of switching enough votes to get it through.

The bills by Sen. Doug Bradley of Jonesboro and others got 62 votes. Since it would increase the premium tax on companies which do not meet investment requirements, it needed 75 votes to pass.

Opponents to investment legislation predicted privately that Faubus would "turn on the heat" in the next few days in an effort to rescue the bill. Notice of reconsideration was given and it can be brought up again.

Faubus has a good record of getting his legislation through on reconsideration even when it has been soundly beaten on the first vote. His legislative aides can refer to the first roll call to see where they must change votes.

The governor's forces have a club to use against opponents to the bill in the form of other pending bills, some of which would need only 51 votes to pass, with the same intent. One of these would require a company to invest 75 per cent of all its Arkansas policy reserves or lose the right to do business in the state.

The bill defeated Tuesday would be brought up again.

MOUNTAIN HOME, Ark. (AP) —

Bids for construction of a plant for Baxter Laboratories, Inc. will be taken in Chicago March 21. Faubus Claims Arkansans in Cuban Invasion

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval E. Faubus disclosed today that Arkansas National Guardsmen flew combat missions in the Cuban Bay of Pigs invasion.

He called the invasion "a disgraceful chapter in American history."

Faubus said he has known since the invasion that the Arkansans were involved, but added that it had been top secret.

"We had a dozen National Guardsmen in Nicaragua and some of them flew combat," Faubus said in a news conference.

"We sent a plane down there. It was shot down."

Brig. Gen. Frank Bailey, chief of staff for Arkansas Air National Guard, said "I don't even know what he (Faubus) is talking about."

"The Air Guard did not have any planes involved," he said. If there was a plane from Arkansas, he said, "I would sure like to know about it."

The governor mentioned the Arkansans after being asked for comment on the disclosure that four Alabama Guardsmen were killed in the invasion.

"This whole thing is a disgrace in American history," Faubus said. "They tried to recruit some men in the North and couldn't do it, so they came down South where they still have some patriotism and got volunteers among the National Guard."

He said the men were recruited in the national interest, then left "hanging in mid-air" by the Kennedy administration.

"If this thing doesn't beat him, nothing will," Faubus said heatedly. He was referring to Kennedy's bid for re-election in 1964.

The Arkansas Democrat today quoted a "high-ranking National Guard officer" whom it did not name as saying some Arkansas Guardsmen trained the invaders.

Delight Plant Discussed to Kiwanians

Wayne Russell of Delight Eggs

Farms told Hope Kiwanis Club

Tuesday that the new egg-laying farm and shell egg processing plant off Highway 67 east of Hope should be in full production by

May 1, weather permitting.

His appearance as principal speaker before the civic organization was in observance of National Egg Month and the Hope

Chamber of Commerce's salute to the local egg industry.

Hempstead county voters several months ago approved a $225-

000 bond issue to aid in construction of the project, which will be repaid on a rental basis.

At the present time, Mr. Russell told his audience, 72,000 laying chickens are producing 170 cases of high quality commercial eggs daily. Another unit which will house 72,000 chickens is being constructed nearby by George and Ed Harris of Dallas and Houston.

Further expansion is also likely in the near future, Mr. Russell pointed out, as the firm has markets for much greater production.

He said the commercial egg industry in this area was in direct competition to California producers, who were shipping eggs

as close as Dallas. He said California producers had developed a high degree of efficiency in their operations and that it was not uncommon to see 100,000 chickens confining to five acres in that state.

The program was arranged by George Frazier. Special guests included Mrs. Precia Gremm, president of Cornbelt Hatcheries;

Haskell Jones, president of Hope

C. C. Johnson of Russell-

ville; Don Stone and Lee Henslee;

Pine Bluff bankers and Larry

Boher of Hope.

Article About U of A Called Pure Fiction

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) —

A Readers Digest article dealing with the attendance of a Negro student at the school from 1949 to 1952 drew criticism Tuesday from a former student and the dean of the school of law.

The article, one of the magazine's Drama in Real Life series, dealt with the attendance of

George Haley, 24, a Negro Air

Force veteran. Written by Haley's brother, Alex, it was titled, "The Man Who Wouldn't Quit."

The article relates numerous troubles the author says were encountered by Haley while at the school — ranging from finding a noose dangling from the ceiling of his basement room to threatening notes.

Dean of Law Ralph Barnhart said Tuesday, "Apparently what they've tried to do is make us here look in 1949 what Mississippi looked like last year with Moredith. It was a different story here."

Barnhart, who was on the law faculty at the time Haley attended the school, said the Negro was a very popular student. The dean said he could not recall any of the harrassments that the article said

Haley experienced.

"I can't say that a Negro student coming here wouldn't have any trouble, but I never heard of anything told about in this article," he said.

Charles E. Scharlau Jr. of Fayetteville, who said he was in the class ahead of Haley, commented,

"It's about 100 per cent pure fiction."

Barnhart said incidents that occurred to other Negroes attending the school were applied to Haley.

Haley was one of the first Negro students to attend the law school. Silas Hunt enrolled in 1948 but withdrew after that year because of illness. He died in 1949.

Jack Shropshire enrolled in 1949.

There is one Negro student in the law school now, Curtis Lawson of Pine Bluff.

U.S. Court Opens at Ft. Smith

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — The opening session of the U.S. Grand Jury for the Western District of Arkansas convened Tuesday with little indication given the public what the jurors will consider.

In his charge to the jury, Judge

John E. Miller mentioned no specific investigations, though he said of the cashing of federal checks, violations of the Dyer Act

(transportation of stolen cars across state lines) and liquor law violations.

Owney Madden, former New York underworld czar who moved to Hot Springs in the 1930s after serving a prison sentence at Sing

Sing prison for manslaughter, was in the grand jury room during the morning session.

It has been reported that Madden has been subpoenaed to appear before the jurors.

He arrived here Monday night and left about noon Tuesday. Madden has lived an obscure life in Hot Springs since moving there.

Last year he was called to Washington to testify before the Senate

Rackets Committee on race wire operations in Hot Springs.

The operations were later closed down.

An earlier grand jury here, in session last fall, investigated gambling at the spa, but returned no indictments.

The jury was to reconvene at 9 a.m. today with Carle Robbins of Fort Smith as foreman and

A. A. Jones of Ozark, deputy foreman.

Hollywood Stardom Has Its Price

By HA LBOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Hollywood stardom has its price.

The price for Glenn Ford has been broken bones. Perhaps no other durable star of his stature—he has made more than 100 pictures—has had his ribs snapped more often in the service of the cinema.

"I love Western roles," he said, "but over the years I've had a couple of dozen bones broken in them. Somehow I never get hurt in anything except Westerns."

"A horse is the most dangerous animal there is."

Glenn could avoid equestrian perils by hiring a double. It is a point of pride with him that he never has.

"I like to do my own riding," he said. "I used to work as an exercise boy when I was 14 or 15 for Will Rogers. He sensed that I loved horses, and he taught me to ride by letting me warm up his polo ponies."

"I have no patience with actors who depend on doubles to perform dangerous feats. They cheat the audience," Ford said.

"I think if you can't do what the role calls for, then you ought to turn it down. If you're going to play the part of a man, then be a man."

Ford is an acknowledged master rider. The Rodeo Cowboys Association voted him the best horseman in pictures in 1959 and 1960, and he is prouder of this honor than any other he has ever won.

Glenn who came to Santa Monica from Canada during his boyhood, started acting in high school. After some stage experience and 2½ years in the U.S. Marines during World War II, he rose rapidly in the film world.

In recent years he has been something of a perennial among from Hope. Besides those already mentioned, other Hope delegates were:

IRS Planning to Reorganize Dist. Offices

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon announced today a reorganization of the Internal Revenue Service aimed at saving about $5 million a year in overhead and administrative costs.

In the latter part of this year, operations will be trimmed in 12 of the present 62 district offices. Starting next Jan. 1, four other district offices will be merged with counterparts in the same state. Field offices will be maintained in cities affected by the mergers.

As a result, Dillon said, IRS will be able to reduce its present nine regional offices to seven. The New York and Boston regions will consolidate in Boston. The Omaha and Chicago regions will be combined in Chicago.

As a further consequence, IRS will have automatic date processing service centers in seven instead of nine locations.

District offices which in the future will count on larger IRS installations nearby for expert and managerial help are those located at Aberdeen, S.D.; Fargo, N.D.; Helena, Mont.; Boise, Idaho; Cheyenne, Wyo.; Anchorage, Alaska; Reno, Nev.; Wilmington, Del.; Burlington, Vt.; Augusta, Maine; Portsmouth, N.H., and Providence, R.I.

As of the first of next year, the Syracuse district office will merge into the Buffalo district; Camden, N.J., into Newark; Kansas City into St. Louis; and Scranton, Pa., will be divided between Pittsburgh and Philadelphia.

With the reduced number of automatic date processing centers, installations once planned for the Detroit and New York areas will not be established.

THE OTHER WOMAN SPEAKS

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: The letter from "A Wife Who Knows" prompts me, the other woman, to speak. When I was 16 I met a boy of 19. The second time we dated he asked me to go steady. I thought him wonderful but his actions puzzling, especially the way we always went to little off - beat places and how he never sat with his back to the door.

Then I found out the reasons. He was married! One of the boys at the office told me. I was stunned. At first he denied it then, when I implored him to tell me the truth, reluctantly admitted that he did have a wife but hastily added they were divorcing. We continued to date secretly and I kept falling deeper and deeper for him. Every time I mentioned divorce he would say, "later," kiss me and that was it.

One night my door bell rang. There stood a young woman who was pregnant. She said, "I am So-and-So's wife and if you and my husband don't quit seeing one another I'll shout the truth from the housetops." I didn't know what to say, so said nothing. Then she left. Her husband and I still continued to date secretly. But every time we met I saw her tear-stained, anxious face so finally I told him it was no good. I never wanted to see him again. And I haven't!

Once I dropped this two-timer, my life changed for the better. I began dating a boy now in the service who is as crazy about me as I am about him. We were childhood friends. His parents love me and I love them. He's everything a girl could ask for. When I think of the first boy and how silly I was, I could crawl into a hole. May other girls who are as unthinking and foolish take warning—A Girl Who Knows—From Experience

Dear Girl: I appreciate the spirit in which your letter was written yet question the impression you give of having done no wrong. For you did.

The weakness of your whole story lies in the fact that you continued going with the husband even after his wife appeared to point an accusing finger at you. Know yourself.

If you probed your inner consciousness you might find that you ended the illicit relation because you tired of the man. You can't set yourself up as an example for others unless you have the courage to see yourself as you really are. But at least you show some contrition which is a step in the right direction.

Dear Helen: About a month ago I met a wonderful girl whom I find to be a fun-loving companion, intelligent, affectionate and easy to get along with. She has acknowledged her love for me after this very short acquaintance and is willing to do anything to create a successful marriage. I feel very comfortable and at ease in her presence but she is an only child and has been over-babied by doting parents. Her mother solves many of her problems for her. This has me worried. I am easy-going, affectionate and sometimes irresponsible. She is 30, I am 45. Considering the facts I have given and our age difference, what do you think our chances for happiness are—The Quaker

Dear Quaker: The danger is over-indulgence on your part. One who has been spoiled as a child presents a real problem for a man who is easy-going and irresponsible. If you can steel yourself to be at all times firm, then you have a chance for happiness provided you love one another. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Happy Marriage."

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Annexation Bill Recalled

SPRINGDALE, Ark. (AP)—Mayor Charles Davis of Springdale said Tuesday he has asked that a bill to allow cities to annex territory across a county line be withdrawn from the Arkansas Senate and referred to the Legislative Council for more study.

The bill has caused considerable controversy in the Springdale area. Springdale has announced intentions to annex a large section of land in southern Benton County and residents of that county protested.

Davis said he wired Sen. Clifton Wade, author of the bill, to withdraw it, but added, "We certainly don't intend to let it die."

Sherman Kenyon, Benton County judge, commented that Davis' action was "fine with me."

Davis said the constitutionality of the bill had been questioned, and that it had drawn so much controversy it appeared headed for defeat.

Rail Unions and Carriers Call Meeting

CHICAGO (AP)—Five railroad unions, representing 210,000 on-train employees and seeking to save the possible elimination of 65,000 jobs, will meet with the nation's carriers next week in a climactic session of their long dispute over changes in work rules.

The new bargaining talks were set for March 13 after the U.S. Supreme Court Monday upheld the right of the railroads to make sweeping changes in work rules to eliminate jobs regarded by the carriers as unnecessary. The lines claim what they term antiquated work rules cost them $600 million a year.

A railroad spokesman and chief negotiator said the carriers will "move promptly as possible" to make the work rules changes. He added he was confident there would be no national rail strike.

But spokesmen for two brotherhoods warned of a possible strike if the railroads put the changes into effect before an agreement can be reached.

The five unions—trainmen, firemen, engineers, conductors and switchmen who run trains on 195 railroads—contend the work rules would eliminate some 65,000 workers, including 40,000 firemen. They maintain that the present work rules and the jobs they provide are necessary for safe and efficient operation of trains.

Chairman Leverett Edwards of the National Mediation Board said that if no agreement is reached at the new bargaining sessions and a strike is called, a new presidential emergency board will be named to study the dispute. That would automatically delay both a strike and the carrying out of the rules changes for at least 60 days.

J. E. Wolfe, chairman of the National Railway Labor Conference and chief negotiator for the carriers, said that "certainly the union leaders know that this country can and will not stand for a nationwide railroad strike."

The Supreme Court's ruling by an 8-0 vote upheld the U.S. District Court and the U.S. Circuit Court in Chicago which ruled last summer that the railroads have a right to overhaul the work rules.

The work rules changes, announced last summer by the railroads, are based on recommendations of a study commission appointed in 1960 by President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Boyer Piles Up Records in Last Game

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Tommy Boyer, cold in the first half, went on a scoring spree in the final stanza Tuesday night to lead Arkansas to a 104-94 victory over Texas Christian University and a piece of third place in Southwest Conference basketball.

Boyer, with 31 points, set several university records.

He finished the season with an average of between 22 and 23 points, topping the 19.4 mark set by George Kok in 1949. He went into the game tied with Jerry Carlton for the most charity shots, 140, but contributed seven in the match to set a new mark.

His total of 123 free throws attempted broke the one-season mark of 121 set by Al Williams in 1947 and his 97 field goals made in conference play this season upped the university record of 93, set by Fred Grimm in 1958.

TCU jumped to an early four-point lead, but couldn't hang onto it and had to battle to stay in contention through the first half. The Porkers took a 44-39 lead to the dressing room.

In the second period, the Horned Frogs could come no closer than six points.

The Horned Frogs hit 54.4 per cent from the field to 44.6 for the Razorbacks, but Arkansas out-rebounded the visitors 32-17.

The Porkers hit 22 of 29 free throws to 20 of 29 for TCU.

Boyer, cold in the first half, hit only 11 points. But his 20 points in the second half helped lead him to the school records and to topping some of his own.

He scored the most points in three SWC seasons with 730, becoming the first player to top the 700 mark in that time.

He went into the game with 106 points from the free throw line and finished it with 113.

Boyer is behind only Kok in the number of points made in three full seasons. He has 1,068 to Kok's 1,105. For the full season Boyer had 439. Kok's high mark was 469.

One wound up with a .315 average with 147 of 161 in free throw accuracy missing two of 9 charity shots. The mark may drop him from the NCAA championship, since Ron Bonham of Cincinnati also had .313 at the end of the season. Bonham's NCAA tournament record will count toward the final total.

Locals Lead Southern Bowlers

In the 26th Annual Southern Bowling Association Tournament being held in Shreveport and Bossier City, La., through the month of March, two teams from this area competed last weekend. Freese Is Trying for Comeback TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — Gene Freese, hard-hitting third baseman of the Cincinnati Reds who is attempting a comeback after missing most of last year with a broken right ankle, makes a special plea. He wants the fans to forget that he ever was injured.

"I couldn't stand any sympathy," Freese said today. "That would be the worst thing for me psychologically. I just know that the first time I miss a ball at third base, someone will shake his head and say, 'too bad, if it hadn't been for the bum ankle, he would have caught it easy.' That's exactly what I don't want."

Gene believes it would help him most if he were treated like any other player.

"My leg is fine. I feel good and I'm sure I can play as well as I used to without any favors. I'm only 29."

Freese came to camp with the batteymen, a week ahead of the rest of the squad. He lifted weights all winter to keep in shape.

The Reds are watching Freese closely. He is one of their key men. A big year by Gene could mean a pennant.

Freese not only is optimistic over his own ability to come back, he also is confident that the Reds can win the National League championship.

"The reason is simple," he said. "We're the best team in the league."

Tells GOPs to Prove Statements

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON AP—Sen. Mike Mansfield today challenged republican contentions that President Kennedy has misled the public and has denied congressional leaders intelligence information on Cuba.

Mansfield, the Senate Democratic leader, said in an interview that Rep. Leslie C. Arends, R-Ill., had impugned the President's patriotism by charging Kennedy knew before Oct. 14 the Russians were installing offensive missiles on the island.

Arends' charge—made Monday night at a GOP political rally in St. Petersburg, Fla.—was that the administration is not even "telling the full story of Cuba" at closed door briefings of leaders of both parties.

Mansfield had this reply: "This congressman knows better than that. He has attended these meetings and I don't recall that he ever raised any questions or expressed any doubts."

In other developments related to the Cuban situation:

Informed sources said the Soviet Union appears to be slowly withdrawing some of its troops from Cuba. They said daily reports come in on ship sailings from Cuba and that apparently a few more troops are leaving every day.

Sens. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., and Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., suggested a Senate probe of bi-monthly payments which four American women have been receiving since their husbands apparently died on a flying mission during the 1961 Bay of Pigs invasion attempt.

Arends, the deputy House Republican leader and a member of the House Armed Services Committee, said Lt. Gen. Thomas P.

"It is just not true."

Jonesboro May Be Team to Beat at L.R.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — North Little Rock, Benton, Jonesboro and Harrison emerged first-round victors in the Class AA-AAA State basketball Tournament here Tuesday.

Four games are on the slate today to determine pairings in quarterfinals Thursday.

Paragould meets Fort Smith at 2 p.m., Conway gets Fayetteville at 3:20, Forrest City meets Hope at 7:30 and Blytheville takes on Russellville at 8:50.

Crossett had little trouble toppling Harrison 66-37 after a first-quarter duel in which the losers led. Gordon Starkey put Crossett in the lead 13-11 on a field goal with 2:20 remaining in the first quarter. The team fashioned a 44-22 halftime lead, then relaxed.

Starkey led all scorers with 19 points. Alan Ethridge led Crossett with 11.

Jonesboro scored 10 points in the last 10 minutes to gain a 55-50 victory. The team had to get a 17-point lead to win before it came back to life.

Hall gained a 45-40 lead in the third quarter, then went into a stall.

But the Warriors also hit a slump and didn't score in the last four minutes.

Tommy Iowland hit 22 for Hall. John Dickson contributed 20 for Jonesboro.

North Little Rock didn't gain a permanent lead on Valley Springs until the last three minutes, when Delaney Kinchen hit from the corner to give the victors a 35-33 lead. The final score was 68-48.

Valley Springs led 12-0 at the end of the first quarter and clung to a narrow margin through most of the second period. But the Wildcats, No. 1 in the final Associated Press Arkansas Schoolboy Poll, took a 25-23 lead to the dressing room.

Bobby Browning led the North Siders with 19. Bill Phifer and Jerry Hurst each contributed 16 for Valley Springs, a Region 1-AA team.

Benton, victor by a 48-34 margin, was behind for most of the game, but spurred in the third period and gained a 27-26 lead on a layup by Calvin Jones. Bob Catling popped in two from the inside circle as the fourth period opened, putting the Region 3-AA team ahead to stay.

Dwain Livesay hit 12 for Benton and Gary Stanfield led Malvern with 11.

Most any type of food except imports, coffee, tea, tobacco, liquor and similar items, he added.

A meeting was held with local merchants Tuesday night in Batesville for explanation of the program.

No exact date for beginning of registration of families was given.

Quinn said he thought the committee was so wound up in the AAC-NCAA feud that it could not devote the proper deliberation to which city should become the American standard-bearer.

He proved his point in the final round Monday over Lakewood Country Club's 7,000-yard course, wiping out Bob Rosburg's 2-stroke lead and then going ahead to whip Rosburg and Tony Lema by three strokes.

Wininger posted a 3-under-par 36-33—69 for a 72-hole total of 279. The winner's check of $6,400 was his largest of the tour.

Rosburg finished with a 74 for a 282 total, even with Tony Lema who finished with a 73. Each got $3,050 prize money.

Behind them, Jacky Cupit and Doug Saunders tied for fourth at 283 and Player came home sixth with 284. Al Geiberg was seventh at 286 and Nicklaus and Jerry Edwards tied for eighth.

Gerrity had testified that the Air Force "went into high gear to support the Cuban plan on the tenth of October." This was four days before Kennedy said he had received the first hard information on offensive missile sites.

"The lords of the Kennedy dynasty have put into effect a system for controlling the news so that we can learn only what they want us to know," Arends said.

Mansfield said it was true that prior to the President's action clamping a quarantine on Cuba, Marines were moving toward the Caribbean, the Strategic Air Command had been put on "an extraordinary alert," the Navy was put on a wartime basis and the Army was alerted, with many elements placed in a state of wartime readiness.

But I resent any allegation that this administration has not been telling the full story of Cuba at leadership meetings," he said.

"It is just not true."

12 Teams Seeks Cuts in Tourneys

By JIM HACKLEMAN

Associated Press Sports Writer

There are six pieces left in college basketball's post-season picture with 12 teams still looking for a cut.

Six conference berths remain open in the NCAA tournament with two clubs in each league in the running for the coast-to-coast extravaganza. Already set for the national tourney are nine conference entries and the 10 at-large selections.

In Tuesday night's developments Yale grabbed a share of the Ivy League lead with an 80-76 overtime victory at Harvard. Santa Clara went ahead in the West Coast Athletic Conference by winning at home against University of Pacific 79-63 and East Tennessee was knocked out of the Ohio Valley scramble, losing at Middle Tennessee 59-57.

Here is the picture of the six races:

IVY LEAGUE—Yale finished at 11-3, matching Princeton, and the two teams will play off at Fordham's gym in New York Friday night for the NCAA spot.

WAC—Santa Clara now is 9-2 and San Francisco 8-2, with these two having a showdown Saturday night at San Francisco. Prior to taking on Santa Clara, the Dons have a home game tonight with San Jose State.

OHIO VALLEY—With East Tennessee out of it, Morehead and Tennessee Tech are left alone at the top with 8-4 records. The co-champions will have a playoff, the conference's fourth in the past eight years.

BIG TEN—Ohio State in the lead at 11-2 with Illinois next at 10-3. The Buckeyes finish at Indiana and the Illini entertain Iowa, both games Saturday afternoon.

BIG EIGHT—Kansas State and Colorado will settle this one Saturday night on K-State's floor. The Wildcats now are 11-2 and the Buffaloes are 10-3, but if Colorado wins the showdown it will get the NCAA trip since it beat K-State in their other regular season game.

BIG SIX—Stanford has clinched a tie at 7-3 but UCLA, 5-5, has a mathematical chance. They'll meet Friday night at UCLA, then the UCLANS are at home against California Saturday while Stanford closes at Southern California.

Providence, 10th ranked nationally and headed for the National Invitation Tournament, romped to its 11th straight victory, winning at Fairfield 85-65.

Baylor snapped Texas' winning string at 14 games and ruined the Longhorns' drive for a perfect Southwest Conference record in a 55-48 upset at Waco Texas finished with a 13-1 conference mark.

In other Tuesday night games—Rice 73, Texas A&M 70; Arkansas 104, Texas Christian 94; Southern Methodist 88, Texas Tech 87; Oklahoma 70, Oklahoma State 65; Syracuse 100, Colgate 78; Pepperdine 73, Loyola of Los Angeles 55.

Tech Earns Berth at NAIA Meet

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas Tech gained its second victory in as many nights over Ouachita Tuesday night for a berth in the national NAIA basketball tournament at Kansas City 11-16. Tech downed the Tigers 61-52.

It will be the ninth time the team has represented District 17 at the tournament — an event it has never won. Tech reached the semi-finals in 1954 and 55, however.

Ouachita, leader in the Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference wars, but ousted from the AIC playoff at Pine Bluff last week, took on Tech Monday night in the first of a "two-out-of-three" series and fell 87-85 in an overtime game.

Tuesday night Ouachita managed to tie the score 49-49 with 5:45 to play, but 12 successive free throws by Tech in the remaining time spelled disaster.

Tech held the Tigers to three points in the last five minutes. The Tigers lost two players during that period—Leon Clements by fouls and Wayne Davenport by ejection.

Tech's free throws were contrived by Kenny Saylor, with three; Bill Boley, 5 and Bob Ratchford, 4.

Tech outshot the Tigers from the charity line, hitting 27 of 30 to 10 of 19 for their foes.

game against the New York Mets Saturday. Veteran relief pitcher Ray Moore of the Minnesota Twins was struck in the back by a line drive during batting practice but was not seriously hurt. Reliever Elroy Face of the Pittsburgh Pirates worked 15 minutes of batting practice and appeared fully recovered from the ankle injury that sidelined him Monday.

Pitcher Bob Bolin reported to the San Francisco Giants' camp after six months in the Army but first baseman Orlando Cepeda and pitcher Juan Marichal remained holdouts. Rookie Jesso Gonder hit a grand-slam homer in the Cincinnati Reds' first intrasquad game.

Hank Aaron checked in at the Milwaukee Braves' camp and hit two of the first five serves to him over the left field wall. Infielder Elio Chacon informed the New York Mets he would report to camp Wednesday but outfielder Frank Thomas remained a hold-out at his home.

Outfielder Manny Jimenez reported to the Kansas City A's camp just in time to avoid a $50-a-day fine for any further tardiness. Pitcher Earl Wilson of the Boston Red Sox was hit on the right shoulder with a line drive, and although the injury appeared not to be serious, he was taken to a hospital for X-rays.
